Area: total: - City 6,700 km² (2,586.9 sq mi)

Climate Sunny/blue skies can be expected throughout the year. The months June through September are generally hot and humid with temperatures averaging above 40°C (110°F). During this time, sandstorms also occur intermittently, in some cases reducing visibility down to a few meters. The weather is usually pleasant from October to May. January to February is cooler and may require the use of a light jacket. This period also sees dense fog on some days. Dry desert air and cooler evenings make it a traditional retreat from the intense summer heat and year round humidity of the capital city.

Natural Resources: petroleum, natural gas

Population: (2006) City 1,850,230

Nationality: noun: Emirian(s), adjective: Emirian

Ethnic Groups: Emiri 19%, other Arab and Iranian 23%, South Asian 50%, other expatriates (includes Westerners and East Asians) 8% (1982), note: less than 20% are UAE citizens (1982)

Religions: Muslim 96% (Shi'a 16%), Christian, Hindu, and other 4%

Languages: Arabic (official), Persian, English, Hindi, Urdu

Economy: The UAE has an open economy with a high per capita income and a sizable annual trade surplus. Its wealth is based on oil and gas output (about 33% of GDP), and the fortunes of the economy fluctuate with the prices of those commodities. Since 1973, the UAE has undergone a profound transformation from an impoverished region of small desert principalities to a modern state with a high standard of living. At present levels of production, oil and gas reserves should last for over 100 years. Despite higher oil revenues in 1999, the government has not drawn back from the economic reforms implemented during the 1998 oil price depression. The government has increased spending on job creation and infrastructure expansion and is opening up its utilities to greater private-sector involvement.

Industries: petroleum, fishing, petrochemicals, construction materials, some boat building, handicrafts, pearling

Currency: 1 Emirian dirham (Dh) = 100 fils
