

ANDORRA

National Tourist Office of Andorra, C/ Doctor Vilanova, N. 13 - Edifici Davi, Andorra la Vella - CP: AD500, Tel.: (+376) 820 214, info@andorra.ad <http://www.andorra.ad>

Capital: Andorra La Vella Time: GMT + 1

Background: Long isolated and impoverished, mountainous Andorra has achieved considerable prosperity since World War II through its tourist industry. Many immigrants (legal and illegal) are attracted to the thriving economy with its lack of income taxes.

Location: Southwestern Europe, between FRANCE TEL: and Spain Geographic coordinates: 42 30 N, 1 30 E

Map references: Europe

Area: total: 468 sq km land: 468 sq km water: 0 sq km Land boundaries: total: 120.3 km

Border Countries: FRANCE TEL: 56.6 km, Spain 63.7 km

Terrain: rugged mountains dissected by narrow valleys

Climate: temperate; snowy, cold winters and warm, dry summers

Natural Resources: hydropower, mineral water, timber, iron ore, lead

Population: 66,824 (July 2000 est.)

Nationality: noun: Andorran(s) adjective: Andorran

Ethnic Groups: Spanish 43%, Andorran 33%, Portuguese 11%, French 7%, other 6% (1998)

Religions: Roman Catholic (predominant)

Languages: Catalan (official), French, Castilian

Economy: Tourism, the mainstay of Andorra's tiny, well-to-do economy, accounts for roughly 80% of GDP. An estimated 9 million tourists visit annually, attracted by Andorra's duty-free status and by its summer and winter resorts. Andorra's comparative advantage has recently eroded as the economies of neighboring FRANCE TEL: and Spain have been opened up, providing broader availability of goods and lower tariffs. The banking sector, with its "tax haven" status, also contributes substantially to the economy. Agricultural production is limited by a scarcity of arable land, and most food has to be imported. The principal livestock activity is sheep raising. Manufacturing consists mainly of cigarettes, cigars, and furniture. Andorra is a member of the EU Customs Union and is treated as an EU member for trade in manufactured goods (no tariffs) and as a non-EU member for agricultural products.

Industries: tourism (particularly skiing), cattle raising, timber, tobacco, banking

Currency: 1 French franc (F) = 100 centimes; 1 peseta (Pt) = 100 centimos. The French and Spanish currencies are used. Euro €

Transportation:

Railways: 0 km

Highways: total: 269 km Ports and harbors: none. Airports: none

Visa: valid passports required by all except nationals of FRANCE TEL: and Spain, provided they hold a valid identification card.

Duty Free: Andorra is a duty-free zone.

Health: visitors should note that as entry to Andorra is via Spain or France, the health regulations of these countries should be known.
