Capital: Bridgetown Time: GMT - 4

Background: The island was uninhabited when first settled by the British in 1627. Its economy remained heavily dependent on sugar, rum, and molasses production through most of the 20th century. In the 1990s, tourism and manufacturing surpassed the sugar industry in economic importance.

Location: Caribbean, island between the Caribbean Sea and the North Atlantic Ocean, northeast of Venezuela

Map References: Central America and the Caribbean

Area: total: 430 sq km land: 430 sq km water: 0 sq km

Climate: tropical; rainy season (June to October)

Terrain: relatively flat; rises gently to central highland region

Natural Resources: petroleum, fish, natural gas

Population: 274,540 (July 2000 est.)

Nationality: noun: Barbadian(s) or Bajan (colloquial) adjective: Barbadian or Bajan (colloquial)

Ethnic Groups: black 80%, white 4%, other 16%

Religions: Protestant 67% (Anglican 40%, Pentecostal 8%, Methodist 7%, other 12%), Roman Catholic 4%, none 17%, other 12%

Languages: English

Economy: Historically, the Barbadian economy had been dependent on sugarcane cultivation and related activities, but production in recent years has diversified into manufacturing and tourism. The start of the Port Charles Marina project in Speightstown helped the tourism industry continue to expand in 1996-99. Offshore finance and informatics are important foreign exchange earners, and there is also a light manufacturing sector. The government continues its efforts to reduce the unacceptably high unemployment rate, encourage direct foreign investment, and privatize remaining state-owned enterprises.

Industries: tourism, sugar, light manufacturing, component assembly for export

Currency: 1 Barbadian dollar (Bds$) = 100 cents

Railways: 0 km

Highways: total: 1,600 km paved: 1,578 km unpaved: 22 km (1998 est.)

Ports and Harbors: Bridgetown, Speightstown (Port Charles Marina)

Airports: 1 (1999 est.) Airports - with paved runways: total: 1 over 3,047 m: 1 (1999 est.)

Visa: travellers are advised to contact the Consulate before travel, as visa requirements constantly change.

Duty Free: permitted goods: 200 cigarettes or 250g tobacco, 750ml spirits and 750 ml of wine, 50g of perfume and 25g of eau de toilet, gifts upto BD$100

Health: a yellow fever certificate is required for travellers over 1 year of age coming from an infected area. The water in Barbados is considered by some to be the purest in the world
