Capital: Denpasar

Background Many people have visited the tropical island of Bali, one of the world's better known tourist destinations. Bali is just one island in a long chain of islands known as the Indonesian Archipelago, the fourth largest nation in the world. Bali is one of the more densely populated islands (almost 5 million people), in an area of only 5 500 sq km (a fraction smaller than Tasmania). Bali lies immediately east of Java, separated by a narrow strait (Bali Strait) less than 3 km wide. It has a number of volcanoes, some still active. Bali today is a mixture of modern and traditional life. The deeply spiritual faith of the Hindu Balinese is very evident, with an enormous amount of time and energy volunteered in the daily practice of their religion.

The Balinese welcome tourists, despite the differences in attitude and lifestyle, and are gener

Location: The island of Bali lies 3.2 km (2 mi) east of Java, and is approximately 8 degrees south of the equator. Bali and Java are separated by Bali Strait. East to west, the island is approximately 153 km (95 mi) wide and spans approximately 112 km (69 mi) north to south; its land area is 5,632 km<sup>2</sup>. The highest point is Mount Agung at 3,142 m (9,426 feet) high, an active volcano.

Map References: Southeast Asia

Area: Total 5,632.86 km<sup>2</sup> (2,174.9 sq mi)

Climate: : tropical; hot, humid; more moderate in highlands

Terrain: The north and south of the central mountains are agricultural lands and the terrain is wider with gentle slopes. Bali is also encircled by coral reefs, and black (volcanic) sand blankets the beaches in the east and north.

Population: 3,325,000

Nationality: noun: Indonesian(s) adjective: Indonesian

Languages: Bahasa Indonesia (official), English, Dutch and many local dialects.

Currency: Indonesian rupiah (Rp) = 100 sen

Religions: Hindu (95%), others

Visa: required by all.

Duty Free: goods permitted: 200 cigarettes or 50 cigars or 100g of tobacco, 1 litre of alcohol (opened), a reasonable amount of perfume, gifts to the value of US$250

Health: a yellow fever vaccination certificate is required from travellers coming from infected areas. Malaria risk throughout the year. All water should be regarded as potentially contaminated
