Capital: Basseterre Time: GMT - 4

Background: Guadeloupe has been a French possession since 1635. The island of Saint-Martin is divided with the Netherlands (whose southern portion is named Sint Maarten and is part of the Netherlands Antilles).

Location: Caribbean, islands in the eastern Caribbean Sea, southeast of Puerto Rico

Map References: Central America and the Caribbean

Area: total: 1,780 sq km land: 1,706 sq km water: 74 sq km

Climate: subtropical tempered by trade winds; moderately high humidity

Terrain: Basse-Terre is volcanic in origin with interior mountains; Grande-Terre is low limestone formation; most of the seven other islands are volcanic in origin

Natural Resources: cultivable land, beaches and climate that foster tourism

Population: 426,493 (July 2000 est.)

Nationality: noun: Guadeloupian(s) adjective: Guadeloupe

Ethnic Groups: black or mulatto 90%, white 5%, East Indian, Lebanese, Chinese less than 5%

Religions: Roman Catholic 95%, Hindu and pagan African 4%, Protestant 1%

Languages: French (official) 99%, Creole patois

Economy: The economy depends on agriculture, tourism, light industry, and services. It also depends on FRANCE TEL: for large subsidies and imports. Tourism is a key industry, with most tourists from the US; an increasingly large number of cruise ships visit the islands. The traditional sugarcane crop is slowly being replaced by other crops, such as bananas (which now supply about 50% of export earnings), eggplant, and flowers. Other vegetables and root crops are cultivated for local consumption, although Guadeloupe is still dependent on imported food, mainly from France. Light industry features sugar and rum production. Most manufactured goods and fuel are imported. Unemployment is especially high among the young. Hurricanes periodically devastate the economy.

Industries: construction, cement, rum, sugar, tourism

Currency: 1 French franc (F) = 100 centimes

Railways: total: NA km; privately-owned, narrow-gauge plantation lines

Highways: total: 2,082 km paved: 1,742 km unpaved: 340 km (1985 est.) note: in 1996 there were a total of 3,200 km of roads
